

EXARC has long been a supporter and active agent in making all research and information OPEN ACCESS - with your help we can make it happen!

You will find hundreds of articles in the EXARC Journal, featuring the latest developments in museums, academic research, living history interpretation and ancient technology. See exarc.net/journal

OPEN ACCESS

Do you need a bronze caster? A museum that brews medieval beer? A living history group depicting Romans? See exarc.net/members

Did you know there are at least 500 archaeological open-air museums worldwide? We have a complete overview on our website. See exarc.net/venues

If you need more information - go check out our Reading Corner, where we have several manuals and an online repository with over 11,500 entries on experimental archaeology and archaeological open-air museums. See exarc.net/reading-corner

OPEN ACCESS

We also host the EXARC Online Calendar of Events with over 250 events every year, which are widely promoted through our active Social Media presence with over 25,000 subscribers. See exarc.net/events
